

LIPID MAPS Training School 2026 – Code of Conduct

LIPID MAPS is committed to providing a welcoming, respectful, inclusive and collaborative environment for all Training School participants, speakers and organisers.

By registering for the Training School, you agree to:

- Treat all presenters, organisers and participants with respect and professionalism.
- Not engage in harassment, discrimination, intimidation or inappropriate behaviour.
- Please note that sessions may be recorded. Microphones and cameras will generally remain off, with interaction available during the Q&A only.
- Do not record, photograph or take screenshots of sessions. Where appropriate, recordings may be made available through LIPID MAPS channels.
- Raise any concerns about behaviour or the event with the LIPID MAPS organising team.

LIPID MAPS will take appropriate action in response to reported breaches of this Code of Conduct. Participants who do not follow these guidelines may be removed from the Training School.

Thank you for helping us create a positive and inclusive learning environment for everyone.
